The Deed of Trust.

The informal trust deed presented by Mr. Carnegie to the trustees reads in

The informal trust deed presence of Mr. Carnegle to the trustees reads in part as follows:

"Gentlemen.—I have transferred sto you, as transtees of the Carnegle peace fund. 10,000,000 of five per cent, first mortgage bonds, value $11,500,000, the revenue of which is to be administered by you to hasten the abolition of international war, the fonlest blot upon our civilization. Although we no longer eat our fellow-men nor torture priseners, nor sack citles, killing their inhabitants, we still kill each other in war like barbarians. Only wild beasts are excusable for doing that, in this, the twentieth century of the Christian era, for the crime of war is inherent, since it decides not in favor of the right, but always of the strong. The nation is criminal which rouses arbitration and drives its alversary to a tribunal which knows nothing of righteous judgment.

"I believe that the shortest and easiest path to peace lies in adopting President Tafe's platform, who said in his dent Tafe's platform, and the transferred sto peace from the trusted to better than you can't do bet

PATSY FLAHERTY TO MANAGE LOCALS

Owner Bradley Practically Decided Upon Atlanta Star and Will Give Definite Answer To-Day. New Man Recommended by Jake Wells. Booe Sale Not Sanctioned.

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.]

New York, December 14.—Patsy Pat Flaherty to-day purchased his release from the Brooklyn National League to sanction the purchase from the Brooklyn National League to club in order to be in a position to accept the managership of the Richmond 'eague club. Flaherty to-day refused to sign with Rochester or Jersey City because he has Owner Bradley's word that he will be given a positive answer to-morrow. Flaherty was recommended to Bradley by Jake Wells, and there is no doubt that he will get the job. Bradley has two other men under consideration.

Flaherty played last year with Atlanta, in the Southern League, where he batted .290. He is a pitcher and outfielder. He was with the Chicago Americans for one year, and was afterwards with the Boston Nationals. He is considered the best man that ever applied for a position in the Virginia League, and has agreed to Bradley was not in the Hotel Bresslin to-night. Barrow, the new Eastern League president, recommends Flaherty.

President Williams, of Roanoke. Special to The Times-Dispatch. | with Jake Wells, failed to get the
